

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH SEES BRIGHTER DAYS

After Half Century of Struggle
$1,000,000 Endowment
Looks Good.

SOUTH IS RESPONDING WELL

General Leonard Wood Heads Campaign for Aid of Famous School in the South.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., April 26.—The campaign headed by General Leonard Wood to raise an endowment of a million dollars for the University of the South at Sewanee, which was inaugurated at a great mass meeting in this city several weeks ago, has been systematically developed since then, and first reports are now coming in. A summary of these preliminary returns shows that in Tennessee, Georgia, Oklahoma, and Louisiana, where active solicitation has been in progress over $100,000 has been secured and the interest continues to grow. The next group of states where preparations are going forward for drives just after the Victory Loan, according to the chancellor, Bishop A. W. Knight, consists of South Carolina, Alabama, Mississippi, Florida and Arkansas, and these will be followed in turn by the rest of the states of the south, the whole movement being planned to reach its close by the end of June and the organization disbanded. Information from all directions now at hand indicates clearly that with such a leader as General Wood in charge and such a cause as the safeguarding of the future of Sewanee with all its splendid record of the past fifty years in Christian education for a slogan to rally all right minded people, success is certain.

A Life of Struggle.
The University of the South, founded at the close of the civil war for the purpose of providing higher education for and moulding the opinions of the young men who would presently be the leaders among men in church and state and has steadily pursued that purpose without lowering its ideals, has never had a general endowment. Being the property of the Episcopal church it has worried along from hand to mouth, from year to year, depending upon the church to help it out of debt from time to time. Even under these conditions it has without ever yielding its standards, accumulated property valued at nearly two million dollars and is today practically free from debt. With this million dollar endowment behind it the future of the university will be secure.
Besides General Wood some of the most prominent men in the country are taking a keen interest in this campaign. General William C. Gorgas, head of the medical department of the United States army, is chairman of the advisory committee, cooperating with General Wood, some others who are giving their enthusiastic assistance are Senator John Sharpe Williams of Mississippi, Gov. Richard I. Manning, of South Carolina, Thomas C. Barrett, of Louisiana, D. H. Cantrell, of Arkansas, and John G. Lonsdale, of Missouri. In every community the alumni of the university who now number in the thousands and laymen of the Episcopal church are forming themselves into teams and pressing the call of Sewanee, and many people who are in no way connected with the church or the institution are working alongside those who are contributing to

Mexico to Be Barred From Nations' League Until Policy Changes

WASHINGTON, April 26.—Diplomatic circles here, it is learned, believe the refusal of France to receive Alberto J. Pani as minister from Mexico was caused by protests by French bankers against seizure of French banks in Mexico by the Carranza government. Carranza, it was said, had known for some months the feeling of the French government and was much chagrined when Mexico was not invited to the conference of neutral nations in connection with the peace conference.

It also has been intimated to Mexico that she would not be given a place in the league of nations until she had modified her policy in dealing with aliens and foreign investors. When it became known in Mexico that she was to be barred from the league there was an instant uproar in the papers. This began about the middle of March and continued to the present.

JITNEY COLLISION KILLS FOUR IN MERRITT MIX-UP

CAMP MERRITT, N. J., April 26.—Four persons were killed and others seriously injured in a collision between two jitneys about a half mile outside the government reservation here last night, according to revised official information given out by the army authorities here today. Reports last night said seven persons were killed and four injured, the supposed dead including Maj. Stanley A. Baldwin and Privates Jeremiah Snehobers, Anthony Hauck and Timothy Marnell, whose names do not appear in today's casualty list and the reports of whose deaths are admitted to have been erroneous. The drivers of the colliding cars are being held by the Tenthly police.

RAIN PREVENTS SCRIMMAGE WITH FORT SILL SOLDIERS

Rain resulted in the cancellation of the scheduled game between the Tulsa Oilers and Fort Sill aviators at McNulty park today. The Oilers play the Bartlesville Empire at Bartlesville tomorrow and probably will not appear before Tulsa fans again until the opening of the Western league season with Omaha here Wednesday.

The Tulsa Federals and Tulsa Professionals are to battle for the city baseball championship at McNulty park tomorrow at 3 o'clock. Well known minor league and semi-pro tossers comprise the roster of the two clubs.

supplication than by any other ailment. You can get plenty of medicines that will relieve, but if you want something that will more than help you I would advise the use of three-grain Sulphur Tablets (not sulphur tablets).

Henry J. C. writes: "Something seems to be wrong with my system and I don't know what it is. I have huge puffs under my eyes, my eyes are bloodshot in morning and my feet and ankles are swollen. Sometimes I have chills and feel weak and tired most of the time."

Answer: Your eliminating organs, such as liver and kidneys, are in need of treatment. Begin taking Balmert Tablets at once. Get them in sealed tubes with full directions of any well-stocked drugist.

"Jane" writes: "My nerves are in a dreadful condition, my appetite is very poor and I am extremely thin. My face is so thin that it makes me very nervous. I should like you to tell me a true remedy."

Answer: If you wish to become nervous, improve your appetite and your nervous system, I heartily recommend the use of three-grain Sulphur Tablets, which you will find in any well-stocked drug store in sealed cartons with full directions for taking. These Sulphur Tablets improve the nutrition, add red corpuscles to the blood, strengthen the nervous system and improve the general health.

"Harry" writes: "Both my wife and myself suffer with rheumatism. We would appreciate a reply telling us what to take."

Answer: Mix the following at home or have the druggist mix for you: 2 drams of iodine of potassium, sodium salicylate, 4 drams, white of codfish, one-half oz. compound essence, castor oil, 1 oz. compound balsam, 1 oz. and a syrup of saccharin, 5 oz. JAPANESE TEA HOUSE INSTEAD OF SALOON

Kansas City Cocktail Mixer Will Transform Refreshment Place When Prohibition Prevails.

That there is something more than comedy in the effect of the government forbidding the sale and the manufacture of intoxicating liquors on and after July 1 becomes evident if one seeks information as to what uses the proprietors of saloons, breweries and distilleries intend making of their properties after that date.

George Schmidt of Kansas City, whose dialect plainly indicates that he was not of American birth, was a visitor in Tulsa the first of the week and when asked what he was going to do when his saloon was closed, replied: "I am going to start a Japanese tea house. Why not? I have a good stand and a large number of people pass every day. I think a tea house would be just the thing."

Misunderstandings over the exact contents of the bill is still causing considerable confusion. A large number think that the bill prohibits the manufacture of intoxicants but does not prohibit the sale until after the stock has been disposed of up to and including December 31.

The rider to the agriculture bill set the date of July 1 as the day on which not only the manufacture but the sale of liquor must cease. The manufacture has already ceased by order of the president as a war measure.

Old properties that have been the landmarks, that have been the gathering places of convivially inclined for half a century or more will be put out of business July 1. Many saloonkeepers have no definite plans for the future. Some have grown up with the business that their fathers have conducted before them; they know no other vocation. Others who had sensed the storm from afar have made provisions for the future. They knew that a business that was under fire for so long a time and which has had to fight for existence time and time again the security of the Italian people. They have planned in a general way for what they felt was inevitable. Judging from the cities and states that have gone dry by state prohibition law, there will be very few saloons that will close their doors and not reopen with a business that is healthful to the community. Cities which formerly had two and three saloons in every business block now boast of large restaurants, cafes and palm gardens.

ITALIAN PRESS KEEPS UP ASSAULT ON WILSON

ROME, April 26.—This morning's Rome newspapers in commenting on the peace conference situation lay particular stress upon declarations of the majority of the Italian people in demanding that Rome shall become Italian. The Popolo Romano says the socialist former minister demands possession of Rome by the Italians should convince President Wilson that nobody in Italy is likely to take his message seriously.

The Corriere della Sera says President Wilson was mistaken if he thought he could divide public opinion in Italy, for it is "in universal revolt against the unparalleled outrage." The executive committee of the liberal party has adopted a resolution insuring the attitude of the Italian delegation while the Masone order in Italy has issued a proclamation calling upon its members in this country and abroad to remain firm and stand up for the cause of liberty and justice.

SECRETARY DANIELS VIEWS SURRENDERED ENEMY FLEET

EDINBURGH, April 26.—The German warships interned at Scapa Flow were inspected today by Josephus Daniels, the American secretary of the navy, and his staff who arrived at Scapa Flow last night. After the inspection, the secretary and his party were entertained at luncheon by Rear Admiral A. J. Bredford, commanding the Orkney and Shetland stations. In responding to a toast by Admiral Bredford, Secretary Daniels said it was a great pleasure to see the surrendered German fleet including some of the greatest warships in the world, at anchor and held by three drifters. He continued: "The German navy not only is helpless to move, but the German nation will be impotent for all time."

Soldiers Realize the Value of an EDUCATION

Many soldiers and sailors have recently enrolled in the Tulsa Business College for a thorough business training. Possibly you should do likewise. It would increase your efficiency and earning power, and result in rapid promotion with a better pay check.

What Soldiers Think About EDUCATION

"I've seen enough to know that the man in the army without an education don't stand much chance for promotion."

"Ain't it a shame that a man like me that can't even set sight on his rifle must stand up and face the educated Germans?"

"Someone ought to tell the boys back home the value of an education before they come here. I didn't feel the need of an education until I got in the army, but now I feel it every hour."

"If the compulsory law had been the law when I was a boy, I wouldn't have to be learning to read and write now."

Both our Day and Evening School continues throughout the summer months. We are especially prepared for the warmer weather by having installed both ceiling and oscillating fans. Nearly one hundred ambitious and alert young men and young women are attending our evening school, and twice as many are enrolled in the day school. It is an inspiration to work with such a group of progressive and enthusiastic students. Consider the soldiers' opinions of an education! Consider your qualifications! And if you have a desire to do greater things—hold a better position—and be assured of rapid promotion with a better salary, act according to your good judgment. May we expect you Monday?
